a discovery workshop for boomers+

Who are you now?

Join the Vital Aging Network for this fun workshop to explore what “may be.” We’ll help you engage with others around the idea of using your skills and talents and see yourself with new and expanded perspectives.

- Explore your purpose for this stage in life
- Examine what motivates you to act
- Connect with others who share your interest in growing and thriving.

This workshop gives you a taste of being a part of a high-energy network, and to learn about the Vital Aging Network’s eight-month Evolve: Re-igniting Self & Community program.

The Vital Aging Network, vital-aging-network.org, is a Minnesota nonprofit that promotes self-determination, civic engagement and personal growth for people as they age.
